

Summary of interview

On 5 October, 2010 the Applicants' representative, Dana Stangel, called Examiner Lovel regarding the application. The discussion briefly included a discussion of two-phase commit. Claim 23 was then discussed. The Applicants' representative gave examples of how the system could function and apply to concrete transactions. Elements of claim 23 were discussed, in particular, the functioning of committing and undoing transactions.